

Register Now to Attend the 2006 IRS Research Conference

The 2006 IRS Research Conference will highlight new research on tax compliance and administration, and will facilitate dialogue among IRS researchers, IRS and state tax administrators, tax experts from other countries, academic researchers, Federal agencies, and private sector experts.

The 2006 Conference will be held June 14 and 15 at the Hart Auditorium of the Georgetown University Law Center. Hart Auditorium is located in McDonough Hall, at 600 New Jersey Avenue, N.W., about two blocks west of Union Station in Washington D.C.

This year's conference papers are grouped into five sessions:

- Corporate Tax Administration and Compliance
- Compliance Modeling
- Uses of Tax Data
- The Role of Third Parties in Tax Administration and Compliance
- New Approaches to Compliance and Administration

There will also be a panel discussion on Compliance and Administrative Considerations for Tax Reform.

A registration form and draft agenda for the conference are attached.

Attendees must register by May 31st. Email your completed registration form to research.conference@irs.gov. You may also mail forms to IRS Research Conference, P.O. Box 2608, Washington, DC, 20013-2608. Each person planning to attend the conference should complete a copy of the registration form. All registrants will receive an email confirming their status within seven business days of receipt of registration form. There is no fee for this conference.

For attendees needing lodging, we have reserved a block of rooms at the Hyatt Regency Washington on Capitol Hill, which is located at 400 New Jersey Ave., N.W., Washington, DC. You must make your reservation by May 12th in order to be assured availability and the government rate ($180 per night, excluding taxes). Make your reservation directly with the Hyatt Regency by calling (800) 233-1234. Please be sure to identify yourself as part of the 2006 IRS research conference.
